1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to outline the university's position regarding additional employment for classified staff and university staff teaching courses at Virginia Tech. Teaching classes refers to any paid employment within the university where the primary focus is teaching undergraduate or graduate classes outside the normal responsibilities of the employee's salaried university position. The policy provides guidelines for staff who do not teach classes as part of the normal responsibilities of their full-time job. Individuals teaching classes as part of the normal position, such as staff who are responsible for teaching laboratory classes as part of their full-time position, would not fall under these guidelines. In addition, this policy only applies to staff who have full responsibility for teaching a class; occasional lectures or short presentations are not covered under this policy.

2. Policy

It is the policy of Virginia Tech to allow qualified staff to teach graduate or undergraduate courses at the university. Once approval has been granted by the employee's department head, staff may seek additional or outside employment according to University Policy 4070, Additional/Outside Employment for Salaried Classified and University Staff (<http://www.policies.vt.edu/4070.pdf>). Academic departments may employ full-time staff to teach one course per semester. The employee must meet the criteria established for adjunct faculty as detailed in the Faculty Handbook (http://provost.vt.edu/faculty_affairs/faculty_handbook.html). Non-exempt staff typically will not be appointed as adjunct faculty; exceptions will be determined by Human Resources in consultation with the appropriate dean.

3. Procedures

The following procedures were developed to provide guidelines for staff teaching classes at the university:

1. The college should concurrently initiate a request to the employee and to the employee's department head and supervisor requesting that the employee teach a course. The request should include the time the course will be taught and information regarding the qualifications required for adjunct faculty status. The employee and the supervisor should meet to arrange mutually acceptable work schedules after the application has been granted by the home department.
2. Class meeting times preferably should be outside the normal working hours of the primary position. If class meeting times occur during the normal work schedule of the primary position, staff employees may use applicable leave with supervisor approval or work extra hours to make up the time. See University Policy 4320, Guidelines for the Fair Labor Standards Act (<http://www.policies.vt.edu/4320.pdf>).
3. The employee is responsible for ensuring satisfactory performance in the primary position. The adjunct teaching job is not considered part of the primary position and, therefore, will not be considered part of the staff performance evaluation process.
4. Compensation for teaching classes will be negotiated between the department in which the employee is teaching and the employee teaching the class based on the rate paid by the department for other adjunct faculty with similar experience/qualifications for the same or similar course. If adjunct faculty rates have been established, the department should provide these rates to the employee. See University Policy 4320, Guidelines for the Fair Labor Standards Act (<http://www.policies.vt.edu/4320.pdf>).

5. Non-exempt employees whose regular duties and teaching duties combine to equal more than forty hours worked in a workweek will be paid overtime in accordance with University Policy 4320, Guidelines for the Fair Labor Standards Act (<http://www.policies.vt.edu/4320.pdf>).
6. Payment for the adjunct position will be made in accordance with University Policy 4296, Adjunct and Wage Faculty Payments (P14 Payments) (<http://www.policies.vt.edu/4296.pdf>).

4. Definitions

Additional Employment: Any work performed for payment inside or outside the university other than the primary salaried employment.

Exempt Position: A position that is not subject to the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act. The status of the position may be determined by contacting Human Resources.

Non-Exempt Position: A position that is subject to the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act. The status of the position may be determined by contacting Human Resources.

Staff: Defined as salaried non-faculty employees, and includes Classified Staff and University Staff.
