Course Withdrawal (W grade) Policy

1.0 Purpose
The purpose of this policy is to define a course withdrawal, commonly referred to as the W grade.

2.0 Policy
Students are allowed to apply a “W” grade to no more than three (3) courses during their academic career.

3.0 Procedures
1. Students must complete a Course Withdrawal form before the end of the last scheduled regular class day (before Reading Day) of the term of the course to be “course withdrawn”.
2. Courses processed as “course withdrawn” or W grade will remain on the student’s transcript with a grade of W.
3. This policy cannot be applied to courses with penalties applied by the University Honor System.
4. Application of this policy is irrevocable and unappealable.
5. Hours marked as a W grade will continue to assess in hours enrolled for purposes of financial aid and tuition assessment.
6. There will be no refunds of tuition and fees as a result of application of this policy.
